

Data Protection Privacy Statement

Trans Global Freight Management Ltd, with its registered office at Woodlands, 79 High Street, Greenhithe, Kent DA9 9RD, England, may obtain certain information about individuals for the legitimate interest of delivering our services which may include the provision of customs formalities, allowing the onward delivery of imported or exported goods.

The source of the personal data is derived from third party importers and exporters.

These details are not transferred or shared with any third parties unless required for the completion of a specific transaction.

The Company will take all responsible precautions to safeguard the information against unauthorised access and use.

This information is only retained for the period necessary to undertake a legitimate business transaction and/or to comply with any UK Government statutory requirements/legislation.

Individuals have the followings rights in relation to the personal data collected.

1. The right to be informed
2. The right of access
3. The right to rectification
4. The right to erasure
5. The right to restrict processing
6. The right to data portability
7. The right to object by lodging a complaint with a supervisory body
8. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling

The information is not used in any automated decision making or profiling process.

Further information can be obtained from our compliance department by emailing compliance.manager@trans-global.com